

Use Your Android-Based Mobile Phone to Make Online Classes Exciting and Engaging

Outline

Learn about the free Android-based apps to enable you to teach children remotely, effectively and engagingly. After completing the session, the learners will be able to:

- Learn to use various free educational tools; Augmented Reality, Free Website & Free Mobile Apps.
- Understand how to use the Google Tools to make your online classes more engaging and exciting
- Understanding how you can multiply your abilities to teach more students online

Modules		Takeaways	Key Exercise
Module 1	Understanding the technology called Augmented Reality (AR) and its applications for online classes	a. Learning to use AR through your mobile phone b. Connecting the power of AR to specific topics c. Learning to make online classes more interesting with AR	a. Practical Tutorial b. Lectures through Slides c. Interactive discussion, Video
Module 2	Learning to use free apps from Google Store to make online classes more interesting	a. Learning how to identify and download the correct apps from Google Store b. Learning how to use share screen from mobile and use the free apps c. Learning how to use the free apps for specific topics in various subjects	a. Lectures through Slides b. Interactive discussion, Video c. Practical Tutorial
Module 3	Learning to use free website from to make online classes more interesting	a. Learning how to identify the correct websites for educational purposes b. Learning how to use the free websites for specific topics in various subjects	a. Lectures through Slides b. Interactive discussion, Video c. Practical Tutorial
Module 4	Learning Google Arts & Culture and its application in online classes	a. Learning the feature of Google Arts & Culture b. Learning how to use Google Arts & Culture to make online classes interactive, where students can view objects with their devices c. Understanding how Google Arts & Culture can help make online classes more interesting d. Useful for teaching History, Geography and Science	a. Lectures through Slides b. Interactive discussion, Video c. Practical Tutorial
Module 5	Learning the apps that students use these days to be more relevant as a teacher	a. Learning the latest apps: Snapchat, Tiktok and Discord b. Learning how to use these platforms to make online classes interactive	a. Lectures through Slides b. Interactive discussion, Video c. Practical Tutorial
Module 6	Assessment of Learning	a. Tasks will be given to students on their understanding of the course materials	a. Practical Tutorial on everything taught throughout the course